

WHAT TO BRING TO CAMP

The Boy Scout uniform builds individual and unit pride. The Scoutmaster's attitude toward wearing the Boy Scout uniform will be reflected in the dress of his troop. Scouts should wear their uniform to and from camp with pride! Scouts and Scouters who have their Class "A" uniform shall wear it to camp-wide flag ceremonies, as well as campfires, Mic-O-Say Ceremonies (if not in tribal attire) and religious services. Those who do not own a complete uniform should wear their Class "B" uniform.

Every troop at camp should take a few minutes to determine if it has everything necessary for a quality program. Remember that there is no electricity in your campsite. The following is only a suggested list of items to take to camp. Consult the Scoutmaster's Handbook for a more detailed list.

Spending Money – Souvenirs, snacks, merit badge supplies and craft kits are available at the Osage River Trading Company. Troops may wish to operate a "bank" to hold money for Scouts while at camp. Only small bills Ones, Fives and Tens should be brought to camp. The Trading Post cannot easily make change for larger bills.

All personal items and spending money should be kept in a secure camp box while at camp. Clothing should be clearly marked with your full name and troop number. The Heart of America Council is not responsible for securing or for the loss of personal items. It is your responsibility to keep track of all personal valuables while at camp.

DO NOT BRING VALUABLES TO CAMP.

All clothing and equipment should be clearly marked with your full name and troop number.
